

HOUSING ANALYSIS AND EMPLOYMENT LAND NEEDS

Final Report
Prepared for:

Vaughan Tomorrow

O U R C I T Y . O U R V O I C E .

HEMSON
Consulting Ltd.

April 2010

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I	INTRODUCTION	1
A.	The Province Has Taken a More Direct Role in Planning in Ontario	1
B.	The Region of York and City of Vaughan Are Implementing the Provincial Vision	4
C.	This Report Provides a Final Technical Basis for the City’s New Official Plan	6
II	THE RESIDENTIAL GROWTH OUTLOOK	7
A.	Vaughan Has a Significant Potential for Residential Intensification	7
B.	Demand Outlook Includes Significant Residential Intensification	10
C.	Demand–Supply Comparison Indicates a Need for Some Additional Greenfield Lands	11
D.	Results Indicate a Major Shift in the Way Growth Will Be Accommodated in Vaughan	12
III	THE EMPLOYMENT GROWTH OUTLOOK	14
A.	Employment Is Forecast to Grow Steadily	14
B.	Employment Land Will Play a Major Role in Accommodating Growth	17
C.	Land Supply Is Not Sufficient to Accommodate Demand	21
IV	EMPLOYMENT LAND CONVERSION	28
A.	Highway 7 Corridor	29
B.	Arterial Frontage Lands Within the Weston– 400 North Employment Area	38
C.	Lands Adjacent to the Keele Valley Landfill Site	43
D.	Two Isolated Remnant Sites Also Included For Potential Conversion	45
E.	East Elder Mills in Northwest Vaughan	50
F.	Rutherford GO Station	53
V	KEY CHALLENGES	56
A.	Encouraging a Shift in Demand Towards Apartment Units Is the Key Challenge	56
B.	Intensification and Redevelopment Occur Incrementally over a Long Time	59
C.	New Official Plan Needs to Address Both Opportunities and Challenges	62