

February is Black History Month in the Province of Ontario

Vaughan Celebrates Black History Month: February 2014

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

A Tribute to Nelson Mandela

February 1, 2014 | 1:00-8:00pm

Dufferin Clark Community Centre, 1441 Clark Avenue West, Thornhill

Presented by Vaughan African Canadian Association in collaboration with the Black Foundation of Community Networks. Enjoy various activities and entertainment, including guest speakers and live drumming.

Film Presentation of Africville – Can't Stop Now

February 9, 2014 | 2:00-4:00pm

Vaughan City Hall, 2141 Major Mackenzie Drive, Multi-Purpose Room, Level 100, Vaughan

Presented by The Thornhill African Caribbean Canadian Association. Presentation highlights also include poetry readings and guest speakers.

Refreshments will be available. Free events.

For more information, visit
vaughan.ca/artsandculture or contact:

Mirella Tersigni, Culture & Community
Development, Cultural Services
905.832.8500 ext. 8459

vaughan.ca/artsandculture

RecAndCultureVaughan
@RecAndCultureV
@RecAndCultureV 